ments, others were not. The dissatisfaction grew out of some not getting an apportionment sufficiently large to meet the needs. The needs grew out of the fact that work and needs have grown more rapidly than have the contributions for this cause. The conference considers the circumstances very unfortunate. It is hoped that the funds will increase next year. After a number of speeches the report was adopted.

The report on temperance recommends that a delegate be sent to the convention called by the Anti-Saloon League to convene in Washington in December. Rev. T. M. Johnson, Mr. T. T. Hicks and Mr. A. J. Harris were named and elected to attend this convention.

The Superannuated Fund Society reported. It was pathetic to see the countenances of the superannuated ministers as they heard the words of the report allowing them but a very small amount for their support. One layman said it was a shame to the Methodist Protestant Church that so small an amount was raised for these faithful old men. A number of the members said the people should be informed in regard to this matter, and that conditions should be improved.

Following is the complete list of the delegates elected during this session to the General Conference, which meets in Baltimore next May. Ministerial: W. E. Swain, D. D., T. M. Johnson, C. A. Cecil, T. J. Ogburn, J. D. Williams, Geo. W. Holmes, N. G. Bethea, G. F. Milloway, J. R. Hutton, J. F. McCulloch, W. F. Kennett; alternates, C. L. Whitaker, S. W. Taylor, A. G. Dixon, H. L. THE NORTH CAROLINA M. E. CONFERENCE.

Sunday morning at 9:30 the conference love feast was held at the church and a large congregation was present to participate and to witness this beautiful and impressive service. At 11 o'clock Bishop Hoss preached a great sermon to an immense congregation.

The conference met promptly at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning to complete the business of the session and to hear the reading of the appointments.

J. C. Wooten submitted the report of the board of education, which recommended that this conference raise $40,000 for the endowment of Trinity College and that the Western North Carolina Conference raise a similar amount. The report was adopted.

The Board of Church Extension submitted a report involving the single item of the assessment on the conference for that cause the coming year, the amount being $10,441.

Amount contributed to Foreign Missions, $21,934; to Domestic Missions, $15,761; to Conference claimants, $8,125; to church extension, $8,000.75; to American Bible Society, $766.27; to support of Presiding Elders, $18,398.82; to support of preachers in charge, $156,615.16.
